

Citizens Advice Mid-North Yorkshire Solicitor in family law

Salary:	£38,000
Hours:	37 hours per week
Responsible to:	Chief Executive Officer
Applications closing date:	26th October 2020
Reserved interview date:	2nd November 2020

Citizens Advice Mid-North Yorkshire are looking for a fully qualified solicitor able to practice in family law in England and Wales with at least three years post qualifying experience.

If you would like to work on a unique and exciting project and take a lead role in improving access to justice in family law matters, here is your chance. We are ambitious to develop our specialist legal advice provision and the successful candidate will be an experienced practitioner who is able to support us in doing this

The suitable candidate will have experience of general family law for people on low incomes to include domestic violence, injunctions, private children matters, and drafting of agreements.

The successful applicant will have excellent admin skills, strong organisational abilities and a good telephone manner. IT skills with word, case recording systems and an ability to service your own administrative needs are a must. The ability to communicate well is essential. This role can be based at any of our offices in North Yorkshire or from home with regular meetings in the office.
