

Family Lawyers

Based in Dalston, London E8

Competitive Salary depending on experience

We are a well-respected and friendly firm of solicitors in Dalston, East London now expanding our family law team by recruiting up to 2 Solicitors/Legal executives specialising in all areas of family law. We are a community based social welfare firm committed to legal aid as well as private client work. The positions will allow for a mixed practice to include public and private law children work, domestic violence work, divorce and finance. Experience in some or all of these areas is a requirement. Resolution or Law Society panel membership would be an advantage.

Full or part-time working and flexible working hours may be negotiable. Prospects for partnership for the right candidates.

Applications are welcome from solicitors or legal executives with a minimum of 3 years' PQE. Interviews will take place in August and September 2021 for shortlisted candidates.

Applicants should send CVs and a covering letter to: email@dowse.co.uk. If candidates have any questions, please ring: 020 7254 6205 and ask to speak to Sophia Maloney.
