

Beck Fitzgerald

Paralegal Vacancy leading to a training contract

Beck Fitzgerald is a specialist Family Law firm committed to Access to Justice and the rights of the individual.

We are seeking an enthusiastic colleague to work on a range of family law cases, both legally aided and privately funded, under supervision. The position is for a paralegal with a view to a training contract after a successful paralegal placement.

Applicants should have

- LPC /BPTC
- An active interest in Family Law
- An ability to work independently and as part of a busy team
- Excellent communication skills
- A professional, empathetic approach to clients
- A strong desire to make a real difference

The firm is owned and run by two leading Family Lawyers. In addition to family law Jenny Beck chairs the Law Society's Access to Justice Committee and co- chairs the Legal Aid Practitioners Group.

Start date as soon as possible

Salary £20,000

Apply with CV and covering letter by email to Beck Fitzgerald contact@BeckFitzgerald.co.uk

Visit us on www.beckfitzgerald.co.uk

Closing date 6th October 2016