LAPG has been commissioned by the Legal Education Foundation to deliver a training and support programme to build on the innovative ideas and learning developed through the Future Advice Fund.

The programme starts on the 15th of July with a day of interactive workshops exploring new ways of raising funds and generating income for NfP advice providers.

To reserve your place please email LAPG Operations Director, Chris Minnoch chris.minnoch@lapg.co.uk or call 020 7833 7431 for more information.

From the autumn of 2016 we'll be delivering a series of half-day workshops to give NfPs an opportunity to learn more about the latest innovations and developments and, with the support of our sector experts, develop clear actions plans to implement positive change in their organisations.

We'll be covering:

- Crowd-funding, with Julia Salasky of CrowdJustice
- Fundraising from individual giving, with independent fundraising consultant Jacqui Scott
- Fee-charging and NfP regulation, with Matt Howgate of DG Legal
- An overview of funding methods and models, with Vicky Ling of Partnership Quality Systems

The programme will explore a number of key themes developed by Future Advice Fund projects, such as:

- Income generation and diversifying your funding base
- Positioning advice in other sectors and developing partnerships to access mainstream statutory funding
- Changing the way services are delivered
- Communications and media – raising your profile
- The role of technology
- Cost-cutting and procurement

A full programme of activities will be published in the very near future.
