Specialists in Mental Capacity and Community Care Law

ASSISTANT SOLICITOR

We are a dynamic energetic legal aid practice with a national reputation located near London Bridge advising and representing disabled people in proceedings under the MCA in the Court of Protection including community care law. We have contracts with the LAA in community care and public law and are Lexcel accredited.

Our clients are some of the most vulnerable in society, and need the assistance, support and protection of top quality lawyers. You can make a real difference utilising your legal skills within a small, friendly and highly driven firm.

We are seeking a solicitor to join our committed mental capacity team to work alongside Nicola Mackintosh QC (Hon) undertaking complex and strategic casework in the Court of Protection.

We are looking for a solicitor (0 – 5 years PQE) preferably with experience in health and welfare cases in the Court of Protection. We will also consider candidates who show they have transferable skills, want a challenge and would like to take their career in a different and exciting direction. We will provide the support to make that happen.

Salary: competitive, according to experience
