

Consultant/Freelance Housing Solicitor

Location: London - Office Based/Hybrid

Working Hours: Part-Time/Full-Time

Type: Fee Share Arrangement

Closing date: Ongoing (we reserve the right to close the process without notice)

We are looking for an enthusiastic housing lawyer to join a dedicated team who are all passionate about housing justice.

Advice for Renters is a very special place to work. We are dedicated to giving clients a superlative, holistic service, where we employ our in-depth knowledge, creativity and dogged persistence to get them the best results. We have a real expertise in, and dedication to helping private tenants, but also assist clients in all tenures, as well as people experiencing homelessness.

If you believe in our values and vision, come on board and help create a more equal housing system, join our loyal and hardworking team with a low staff turnover. Our staff work for us because they believe in the core values and mission of the organisation and our commitment to housing equality. We're a small organisation with a big voice. This is not just a job; it is a vocation.

You must be a qualified Solicitor with solid experience and an in-depth knowledge of housing law. You will have, a commitment to excellent client care and have great organisational skills and be able to work with minimal supervision, meeting tight deadlines and maintaining high levels of accuracy. You will be IT literate, self-servicing and have a good working knowledge of Legal Aid processes (although you will receive great admin support). You will be able to contribute to the growth and development of Advice for Renters` services.

If you`d like to talk to Ronald Daley, the Head of our Housing Advice Centre, please call 020 3841 6930 to book a telephone appointment.

Please note CVs will not be accepted, please complete our application form and equal opportunity form available from our web site: adviceforrenters.org/london-jobs, where you can also find a full Job Description and Information.