

Camden Community Law Centre is recruiting a Public Law & Immigration Practitioner

Location: Kentish Town with occasional travel to local surgeries and/or institutions holding clients in detention (currently subject to Covid regulations but with a view to returning to face-to-face services as soon as it is safe to do so).

Salary: £28,000 pro rata (28 hours per week).

Starting date: ASAP.

Role: We are looking for a dynamic immigration practitioner to join our Public Law and Immigration unit.

The successful applicant will have at least 2 years' experience practicing immigration and public law under a legal aid contract and be well versed in LAA compliance in both controlled and certificated cases.

IAAS Level 2 and public law supervisor accreditation is required.

About us: Camden Community Law Centre was established in 1973 and continues to play a vital role in the advice sector of our borough. Our Immigration Unit was peer reviewed by the LAA in 2020 and rated Excellence (1), reflecting our commitment to client care. Our Immigration and Public law units work in tandem with the Housing, Welfare & Benefits and Employment units to provide a holistic legal service to our most vulnerable residents.

To apply please send in a covering letter plus CV addressed to Sean Canning @ sean@cclc.org.uk stating clearly in your email subject "Immigration and Public Law Solicitor Recruitment".
