

Immigration & Asylum IAAS Accredited/Public Law Senior Caseworker

Sutovic & Hartigan Solicitors is a well-established law Firm, with a reputation for excellence, achieving very good results and commitment to its clients. We are recognised experts in Immigration & Asylum, Public Law, civil claims for Unlawful Detention/False Imprisonment and Human Rights. We continue to be at the forefront of legal developments in these fields with success at all court levels, including before the Supreme Court. We focus on delivery of high-quality legal advice and representation to our publicly funded and private clients.

We are currently seeking to recruit an experienced Immigration & Asylum/Public Law Senior Caseworker with knowledge of dealing with the full range of immigration & asylum and public law issues that affect migrants, refugees and asylum seekers to manage and maintain a complex caseload of publicly funded and private cases.

Key Skills Required:

In order to be successful, you must have/be:-

- Accredited to at least Senior Caseworker level under the Law Society's Immigration and Asylum Accreditation Scheme (IAAS)
- Have excellent grounding and knowledge of the full range of immigration & asylum and public law issues that affect migrants, refugees and asylum seekers
- Experience of having conduct of a caseload of applications and lower court cases, including unaccompanied minors, appeals, fresh claims, human rights cases, deportation cases, victims of modern slavery or trafficking, and Immigration Rules based
- Prior experience in providing immigration & asylum and public law advice under legal aid and on a private basis
- Able to work both independently and under the supervision of a Supervising Solicitor.
- Excellent client care skills
- Bright, eloquent, have a keen eye for detail, proactive and demonstrate good judgment
- Ability to work to deadlines and short timescales
- A commitment to a long-term career of working with migrants, refugees, asylum seekers as well as individuals and businesses in a mixed legal aid/private practice such as the Firm.

Sutovic & Hartigan values highly driven individuals who are practical and lateral thinking practitioners that have the ability to push forward legal developments and are able to work in a high-pressure environment.

This position may lead to a training contract for those looking to qualify as a solicitor (and may include the granting of time to count) after satisfactory service and if your performance has met the Firm's expectations.

Salary:

Competitive based on experience.

Job Type:

Full-time

Location of Office: 271 High Street, London W3 9BT

How to Apply:

Please send your CV and covering letter to marias@sutovichartigan.com

Closing date:

Friday 6 September 2019