

HOUSING/PROPERTY LITIGATION SOLICITOR (1-3 PQE)
LONDON – E1

TV Edwards LLP is renowned for providing good quality legal advice and representation. We are seeking a junior solicitor to join our growing housing team. This exciting opportunity will suit an individual who is looking to develop their career in housing and property law in a supportive environment.

You will be experienced in all aspects of housing law (including homelessness, possession proceedings and disrepair) and have a good knowledge of legal aid funding. Experience of property litigation including private client work and knowledge of CFAs would be an advantage. You will be joining a team which has been recognised by Chambers and Partners (ranked in Band 2 with 3 lawyers ranked individually) and the Legal 500 (Tier 2). We have good referral sources from local charities and NGOs who work with us together to achieve the best outcome for our clients.

Our staff are without doubt our best asset and we reward performance, provide flexible working practices and positively encourage every individual's contribution as to how we deliver services. We are market leaders in legal sector IT infrastructure systems and billing. As acknowledged in our Lexcel accreditation, we offer excellent support and training opportunities.

For full job requirements please see the information pack available on our website.

Hours: Full-time, 9:30am-5:30pm
